Preliminaries:

Estimation of the arts for church life and for Christianity in general
(What are we losing if we don't integrate the arts any more into church life?)

Context of the “Kirche kreativ”:

Community of artists. Interdenominational, but linked with churches

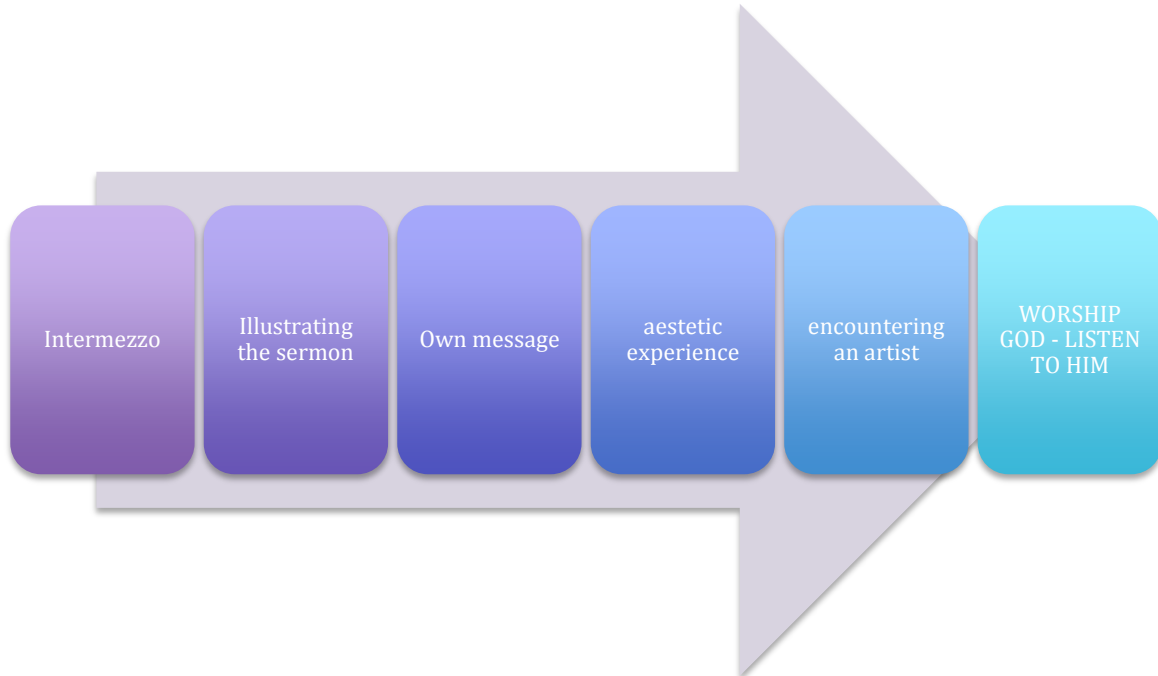

Character of the “Kirche kreativ”:

General character: Atmospheric (evening, beautiful building) not high-churchy, relational, interactive, seeker oriented

Different traditions (interdenominational approach): traditional sermon, modern worship, silent prayer, meditative elements, intercession/ blessing time

Art: Mainly professional, different styles (mostly fine arts – not mainstream), 20' minimum
